
INDEX

References to footnotes are indicated by a lowercase n, e.g. 100n. An n following a page range indicates a multi-page footnote.

A

action versus contemplation conflict, 82–83
 in life, 83–84, 187–188, 195, 198–199 in novels, 80–82, 86–87 Adoration of the Magi, The (Velásquez), 119 aesthetic pleasure. See pleasure, aesthetic alteración animals, 178–180, 182
 definition, 180n
 humans, 187, 200, 201
See also self versus other animals, existential status of, 178–180, 182 Aristotle, 196
 art
 experience of, 85–86
 form as substance of, 75
 iconoclasm, 40–41
 lived reality in, 10–11, 20–21, 24–25, 28 as salvation, 47, 49–50 sculpture, 40–41, 73, 95
See also art, contemporary; painting; point of view in arts art, contemporary aesthetic pleasure in, 6–7, 8, 12, 21–23
 cubism, 124–126, 129–130 ideas as sole content, 127, 129–130 impressionism, 64, 122–125, 128–129
See also dehumanization in art art, popular judgment of, 8–9, 10–12, 24, 25
 music, 26, 28
 painting, 20–21
 theater, 8, 13–14, 68–69, 70–72
See also Romanticism art, sociology of human inequality, 7–8 problem of understanding, 5–7 unpopularity, 3–5 audience, polarization of, 5–7, 8, 11–12 authentic I. See vocation Azorín, 71–72

B

Balzac, Honoré de, 60, 79
 baptistery doors, Florentine (Ghiberti), 95 Baudelaire, Charles, 44, 181
 being. See life

Being and Time (Heidegger), 146–148n bellwethers of cultural change, 41–42 biographers of Goethe, 138–139, 155, 157, 158 biography, 141–145, 155–158, 173–174 body, cult of, 51–52. See also youth botanical ideal of Goethe, 148–149, 153, 165– 167, 171. See also vocation
 Brion, Friederike, 157

C

causation versus motivation, 27–28
 Cervantes, Miguel de, 62, 66–67, 88–89n, 94– 95 Cézanne, Paul, 124–125
 character
 in Dostoevski's novels, 74, 77–78 film and theater, 66, 68–71 imaginary psychology, 102–103 substance of novel genre, 65–67, 87–90 See also experience from within subject; horizon of life
 Charles Augustus, Grand Duke, 161–162
 Chevesta, Paul, 186–187 chiaroscuro, 118–120
 cinema, 51, 66, 107
 classicism, 5, 67, 68, 135 contagion, psychic in art, 26–29 contemplation acquisition of, 183, 188–189, 193 attribute of man, 178, 180–181 Greek view, 195–197
 need for, 194–195, 198–199, 201–204
 and theater, 68–70
See also action versus contemplation; ideas; self versus other cubism, 124–126, 129–130
 culture
 bigotry of, 197, 198
 ideas as basis, 169, 183–184
See also insecurity

D

danger, need for, 136–137. See also
 insecurity
 Debussy, Claude, 3, 29–30, 32 definition in novels, 62–64 dehumanization in art, 3–54 dehumanization in art (cont.)

 bellwethers of change, 41–42 contrast with Romanticism, 4–5, 11, 24–25 emotional engagement, 8–11, 14–19, 27–28
 iconoclasm, 40–41
 inconsequentiality, 49–52, 93 irony, 14, 46–49
 new sensibility, 12–14, 19–23, 29–32 objectification of ideas, 36–40 polarization of audience, 5–7, 8, 11–12 psychic contagion, 26–29 strategies, 33–36
 tradition as negative influence, 42–46
See also art, contemporary; art, sociology of Descartes, René, 128, 188, 204 destiny. See vocation dialogue of self and other, 141–142, 147–148n, 183–184, 185–188 Don Quixote (Cervantes), 62, 66–67, 88–89n, 94–95 Dostoevski, Fyodor, 74–79, 95, 102 drama. See theater

E
 engagement, emotional, 8–11, 14–19, 27–28.

See also dehumanization in art ensimismamiento. See contemplation entelechy. See vocation environment. See self versus other ethics and vocation, 150–152

Europe

decline of, 199–200
 idealism, 168, 185
 political ambiguity, 46 social character, 7, 135

evolution in arts

painting, 108–109, 113
 parallel between genres, 4, 32 parallel to philosophy, 67, 107–108, 127–130 experience from within subject, 96, 142–145, 168. See also character; horizon of life; self versus other eyes. See vision

F

Faust (Goethe), 153–155
 Fiedler, Konrad, 63
 films, 51, 66, 107
fin de siècle, 193

Florentine baptistery doors (Ghiberti), 95 focus, 10–11, 83–84, 109–110, 114–115. See also vision form

human content vs., 9, 22–23, 25
 iconoclasm, 40–41
 seen from within, 96, 142–145, 168 substance of art, 75

future, 134, 147n. See also insecurity

G

genres, artistic

decline of, 13–14, 57–60, 98–100
 parallel evolution, 4, 32

Ghiberti, Lorenzo, 95

Giorgione, 116

Giotto, 113, 125, 128

Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von, 133–174 biographers of, 138–139, 155, 157, 158 botanical ideal of life, 148–149, 153, 165–167, 171 eternal youth, 168–171

existential status as man, 139–141

first Romantic, 145–148

on ideas, 37, 203

inconsistency, 153–155

new biographical approach, 141–145, 155–158, 173–174 struggle with vocation, 149–153, 159–160, 165–168 symbol of depreciated past, 133–137

in Weimar, 158, 161–164, 170–173

Gómez de la Serna, Ramón, 35–36

Greco, El, 116–118

Greek worldview, 41, 195–197

Guyau, Jean Marie, 3

H

Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich, 192

Heidegger, Martin, 146–148n

Hermann und Dorothea (Goethe), 168

Hernani (Hugo), 4, 6

history, 107–108

hollow space in painting, 112–113, 121, 122–123 horizon of life, 24, 89–90, 93, 148n. See also character; experience from within subject

Hugo, Victor, 4, 6

human content. See dehumanization in art human values, hierarchy of, 26, 35, 52, 84

Husserl, Edmund, 129n

I

iconoclasm, 40–41
 idealism, 168, 185
 ideas culture's basis, 169, 183–184 dangers of vagueness, 177–178 focus of art and philosophy, 127, 129–130 Goethe on, 37, 203
 life vs., 168–169
 objectification of, 36–40 realizing of, 18–19, 36–39, 125–126 science's objective, 62–63 stage of human evolution, 185–186 See also contemplation; culture imperviousness in novels, 91–95
 impressionism, 64, 122–125, 128–129 inconsequentiality in art, 49–52, 93 inconsistency of Goethe, 153–155 inequality, human, 7–8
 insecurity
 and maturity, 169
 nature of life, 147n
 need for, 161, 190–193
 shipwreck metaphor, 136–137 inspiration, limits of, 57–58
 intellectualism, 195–199
 irony in art, 14, 46–49

J

Jena, University of, 171–172 judgment of art, 8–9, 10–12, 24, 25

L

Ladies in Waiting, The (Velásquez), 117, 123
 Leibniz, Gottfried Wilhelm, 128
Leiden des Junges Werther, Die (Goethe), 153–155, 165
 Leisewitz, Johann Anton, 157
 Leonardo da Vinci, 24, 116 life
 action vs. contemplation in, 83–84, 187– 188, 195, 198–199
 devaluation, 197–198
 experienced from within, 96, 142–145, 168 horizon, 24, 89–90, 93, 148n ideas vs., 168–169
 preoccupied with itself, 146–148 See also insecurity; self versus other;
 vocation
 literature. See novels lived reality. See reality, lived Lucien Leuwen (Stendhal), 88

M

Machiavelli, Niccolò, 203
 Madame Tussaud's wax museum, 28–29
 Mallarmé, Stéphane, 27, 30, 31–32 man
 as contemplative, 178, 180–181 existential status of, 139–141, 185–186 rationality fallacy, 188–190, 193–195
 See also self versus other maturity, 169–171. See also vocation Meditaciones del Quijote (Ortega y Gasset), 80, 147n
 meditation. See contemplation metaphor, 33–37, 63
 micro-structure of life in novels, 35–36, 60– 62, 81, 97
 motivation versus causation, 27–28 movies, 51, 66, 107
 music, 3–4, 11, 26, 29–30, 47

N

new art. See art, contemporary Newton, Isaac, 202
 Nietzsche, Friedrich, 26, 192–193
 novels, 57–103
 decline of genre, 13–14, 57–60, 98–100 dependence on character, 65–67, 87–90 Dostoevski, 74–79, 95, 102 error of definition, 62–64 imperviousness, 91–95
 micro-structure of life, 35–36, 60–62, 81, 97
 Proust, 36, 79–80, 81–82, 87, 97 psychology in, 101–103
 as surrogate world, 95–98
 See also action versus contemplation;
 theater

O

object/subject relation, 29–30, 36–40, 113, 124
 Ortega y Gasset, José, 80, 146–148n other, confrontation with. See self versus other

P

painting
 evolution of, 108–109, 113 heightened vision, 63, 64 hollow space in, 112–113, 121, 122–123 ideas as subject, 38–39 landscapes, 81
 light, 118–120

painting (cont.)
 realistic style, 11–12, 20–21, 24, 25 See also art; art, contemporary; point of view in arts past, influence of, 41–46, 133–135, 204 perspective. See point of view in arts philosophy, 67, 82–83, 107–108, 127–130
 Picasso, Pablo, 126
 Pirandello, Luigi, 7, 39 plant as model of life, 148–149, 153, 165–167, 171 pleasure, aesthetic contemporary art, 6–7, 8, 12, 21–23 human content, 8–12, 26–29
 novels, 80–82
 poetry, 30–32, 96, 170
Poetry and Reality (Goethe), 149–150 point of view in arts, 107–130 chiaroscuroists, 118–120
 cubism, 124–126, 129–130
 emotional engagement, 14–19
 experience from within subject, 96, 142–145, 168 history as motion, 107–108
 impressionism, 64, 122–125, 128–129 object of artistic evolution, 108–109
 philosophy, 127–130
 proximate and distant vision, 109–113, 115, 122
 Quattrocento, 114–115
 Renaissance, 40, 115–116, 129
 Tintoretto and El Greco, 116–118
 Velásquez, 120–122
 See also art, contemporary; vision popular art. See art, popular progressivism, 184–185, 191–192 Proust, Marcel, 36, 79–80, 81–82, 87, 97 psychology, 45–46n, 69, 99–103, 141–142

Q

Quattrocento, 114–115

R

Racine, Jean, 73
 Raphael, 115–116
 rationality fallacy, 188–190, 193–195
 reality, lived
 in art, 10–12, 20–21, 24–25, 28 primacy of, 17–19
 See also dehumanization in art
 Renaissance, 40, 115–116, 129
 retraction of vision in art, 73, 113, 119–120, 121–123, 124

Romanticism

defined, 145–148
 manipulateness of, 26–27, 28 popular style prototype, 4–5 realism of, 10–12, 20–21, 24–25 See also art, popular; Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von rouge et le noir, Le (Stendhal), 61, 66–67, 79

S

Schiller, Friedrich, 138, 167 science, 62–63, 83, 128
 sculpture, 40–41, 73, 95
 security fallacy, 190–193. See also insecurity self-realization. See vocation self versus other, 177–204 animals as model, 178–180, 182 contemplation as preparation, 180–183 dialogue, 141–142, 147–148n, 183–184, 185–188
 intellectualism, 195–199
 progressivism and idealism, 168, 184–185, 191–192
 rationality fallacy, 188–190, 193–195 retreat from world, 201–204 security fallacy, 190–193 unbalanced, 169, 177–178, 199–201
 See also vocation
 sensibility of contemporary art, 12–14, 19–23, 29–32 shipwreck as metaphor for life, 136–137 Six Personages in Search of an Author (Pirandello), 39 sociology of art. See art, sociology of souls, 140
Spinners, The (Velásquez), 117, 123
 Stendhal, 61, 62, 66–67, 79, 88 strategies of contemporary art, 33–36 subject/object relation, 29–30, 36–40, 113, 124 surrealism, 35–36

T

taboo, 33–34
 talent, 57–58, 159–160
 theater
 French, 68–70, 73
 of ideas, 39
 naturalistic, 8, 13–14
 Spanish, 70–73
Theme of Our Time, The (Ortega y Gasset), 148n thought. See contemplation

Tintoretto, 116–118
Titian, 10–11, 116
tradition, influence on art, 41–46
Tristan und Isolde (Wagner), 26

U

unbalance of self and other, 169, 177–178, 199–201
University of Jena, 171–172

V

Vega, Lope de, 72, 73
Velásquez, Diego, 115, 117, 119–122, 123, 128 vision and emotional engagement, 15–17, 27, 28 focus, 10–11, 83–84, 109–110, 114–115 proximate and distant, 108–113, 115, 122 retraction of, 73, 113, 119–120, 121–123, 124 vital design. See vocation
vocation
 biographical tool, 143–144
 Goethe's struggle with, 149–153, 159–160, 165–168
 vital design of self, 141–143, 151–153, 166, 190
 See also self versus other voluntarism, 199

W

Wagner, Richard, 26, 29
waxworks, 28–29
Weimar, Goethe in, 158, 161–164, 170–171
Wilhelm Meister (Goethe), 153–155 world novel as surrogate, 95–98 retreat from, 201–204

Y

youth, 51–52, 168–171

Z

Zurbarán, Francisco de, 25